VNSNY has been committed to meeting the needs of New Yorkers for over 125 years. We're the largest not-for-profit home health care organization in the country, and today, nearly 14,000 employees work together to make a difference in the lives of approximately 48,000 patients on any given day. Our dedicated, compassionate staff make it possible for VNSNY to offer a full array of home- and community-based programs and services. Whether you impact direct patient care, drive change in new managed care models, or provide operational support for our organization, your contributions are vital to delivering the exceptional care that leads to positive outcomes. At VNSNY, we know that our employees are our most valuable asset, so we're always working to support our employees. If you're ready to make a difference, we want to hear from you.

Our Mobile Crisis Management Services program works with individuals that are currently experiencing emotional and/or substance misuse crises by responding to their homes. The program was developed to provide alternative options to 911 response. The team of clinicians and peers work with each individual to develop a collaborative plan to obtain needed services in the community or assist with having the individual go to the hospital. Most times crises can be resolved and the team will provide short-term follow-up to monitor and work towards linkages to services. If an individual does need to be evaluated further in an emergency room, the team facilitates this with the needed services and advocates for the individual at the hospital. This is a field-based program and fluency in languages other than English are a plus. The program operates 8 am to 8 pm Sunday to Saturday, including holidays.
