

Dear Colleagues,

Please join the Smoking Cessation Leadership Center at UCSF for our next live webinar, “Recovery-Oriented Tobacco Interventions in Addiction Services” on Friday, April 30, 2021, at 1:00 pm EDT (60 minutes).

Treating tobacco use disorder in the behavioral health setting is safe, promotes longer term sobriety, reduces social stigma, and contributes to improved physical health and quality of life. Yet smoking is commonplace and a prime form of socialization in the treatment and recovering culture. For many the vision of being in recovery includes a cigarette, cup of coffee and daily mutual support meeting. In this webinar, participants will gain an understanding of strategy to challenge the social norms that serve as barriers to tobacco-free addiction services and to provide tobacco-specific behavioral counseling within a hope-inducing, growth-promoting spirit of recovery.

We are honored to have Tony Klein, MPA, NCACII, Consultant and Clinical Trainer, Tobacco Recovery and Wellness Initiative, presenting on this important and timely topic.

Webinar Objectives:

- Apply strategies to tailor evidence-based tobacco dependence practice guidelines to a behavioral health population.
- Assemble participant capacity to discuss the topic within a narrative of drug and alcohol recovery.
- Analyze a tobacco behavioral counseling model that ensures matching the intervention to client stage-readiness.
