PiRI Rochester Announces Leadership Search: Co-Executive Director, Strategy and Operations

PiRI Announces Leadership Search Co-Executive Director, Strategy and Operations

Partners in Restorative Initiatives is pleased to announce that, after several months of study, we are moving our leadership structure to a Co-Executive Director model. We have explored the qualities of a truly restorative organization as a community, and believe the work we have done in reflecting on our leadership and organizational structure will be an asset moving forward.

We encourage you to spread the word about our Co-Executive Director, Strategy and Operations opportunity as we build a new leadership team to support our journey as a restorative agency.

The Co-Executive Director, Strategy and Operations, along with the Co-Executive Director, Equity and Programming, are the co-chief executive officers of PiRI. The Co-Executive Directors report to the Board of Directors and, in conjunction with the Board, are responsible for the organization's consistent achievement of its mission, programmatic goals, and financial sustainability.

Qualifications

- A leader who will support the organization's journey as a restorative agency, prioritizing equity and social justice in all we do
- A leader who believes in shared leadership within an organization and seeks to hear the voices of all community members in decision making
- A leader with management experience, particularly in the areas of strategic planning, personnel management, and fundraising
- Familiarity with the philosophy and implementation of Restorative Practices in schools, communities, and restorative justice environments
