Greetings!

Peer Workforce Readiness Basics in a learning collaborative that will meet starting next week on Mondays from 10-11:30 am.

While the name states peer workforce, we welcome folx who are interested in any employment. The information and experiences we all share supports co-learning and thought provoking environment for those of us who are thinking about employment, not currently working, haven't worked in a while, and those of us who are employed as well.

We explore a different topic each week and share our experiences through guided series of questions related to the topic. Please see attached for topics and access information. You may access each day by clicking on the link or by calling in. For more information please email crwtrainingcenter@mhaw.org or call 631-471-7242 ext. 1217.
