

NOW RECRUITING MEMBERS

PEER CORPS

In 2019, NYC overdose deaths totaled 1,463—the second highest number on record since the Health Department (DOHMH) started tracking overdose deaths. DOHMH developed the Peer Corps initiative in response to the rising number of overdose deaths. The COVID-19 pandemic has only worsened overdose in the city. Peer Corps recruits and mobilizes community members with lived experience in substance use and recovery, bringing life-saving services to marginalized populations throughout NYC.
