Sunset Park, Brooklyn

Peer Navigator

Family Health Centers at NYU Langone – Sunset Park

Position Summary:

We have an exciting opportunity to join our team as a full-time Bilingual Spanish speaking Peer Navigator in Sunset Park Brooklyn. The Peer Navigator will play a critical role in our Enhanced Treatment and Recovery (EnTRy) program. The EnTRy program is a new and innovative program designed to improve early detection and treatment of mental illness, particularly psychotic-spectrum disorders, across the lifespan in Sunset Park, Brooklyn as well as the neighboring areas.

The Peer Navigator works with patients in the EnTRy program, engaging patients in wellness activities, and helping patients increase their ability to self- manage their own health problems. As a central part of the Program, the Peer Navigator will lead or co-lead several WRAP or WSM groups; promote the EnTRy program to individuals and families that call to learn more; speak to and enroll patients into the EnTRy program; help patients connect to Case Management, Psychiatry, or therapy sessions; perform telephone outreach or reminder phone-calls; approximately 30% time will be in the community with another team member to help individuals conduct telehealth visits in their home on tablets; and participate in team meetings.

Extremely competitive salary and benefits.
