Support Your Peers in Self-Employment

Live & Learn, Inc. is currently looking to add Online Forum Moderators to our team to help support Reclaiming Employment™ users in their self-employment journey.

Reclaiming Employment is an interactive virtual platform that provides self-employment education and support for people who have experienced mental health-related challenges around work.

As part of this platform, we operate a social network where users can build relationships with other business owners in our community.

Read below to find out more about becoming a moderator and how to apply.

Moderator Duties

Moderators contribute 2-5 hours per week to facilitating discussions in online groups

This position will work under contract and receive a $50/week honorarium

We expect that moderators will serve for 6 months from June - December 2022

Learn More

We are looking for moderators whose personal experience/identity matches that of our users. Specifically we are looking for people to moderate the following groups:

- Mental health-related challenges at work
- Veterans
- Returning citizens/previously incarcerated individuals
- Black, Indigenous, and People of Color

- LGBTQ+

Benefits of Moderation

You'll be actively involved in the growth and development of this initiative, whose aim is to create useful and respectful spaces providing support and resources for people at any stage of their self-employment journey. You'll have full training to perform your role, and will work within an interactive and supportive online team atmosphere. Opportunities for further training will enhance your skills as you grow into the role.

- Support your peers in starting a business
- Free training in online forum moderation
- Earn a certificate from Live & Learn in Online Forum Moderation
- Contribute to improving Reclaiming Employment and documenting its effectiveness**
- Free access to the Reclaiming Employment courses and library for 6 months
- Eligible to receive a job recommendation/reference from Live & Learn (from Laysha Ostrow, PhD, CEO)
- Credit on our "About" page as a team member (if desired)
- $50/week stipend

Moderator Qualifications

Moderators do not need to have any experience with self-employment. Training in peer support or community engagement is very beneficial, although we will provide training in online moderation. Moderators should be comfortable with using online discussion groups. Lived experience of mental health-related challenges around work is an asset.

Apply now to be a moderator

**Moderators will receive access to Reclaiming Employment but will not participate as a user in our research study. If you are interested in being a user, please fill out this form instead.
