NYAPRS Note: NYAPRS is very pleased to live-stream our keynote and other featured presentations during this week's Annual Conference, from tomorrow Wednesday to Friday. See below for the times, blurbs and links!

NYAPRS 2022 Annual Conference "A New Alliance: It Takes a Community"

LIVE STREAMED FEATURED PRESENTATIONS

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 21, 2022

12:30–1:45 pm

1. Lessons from the Movement

Gayle Bluebird, Moe Armstrong, Celia Brown; moderator: Harvey Rosenthal moderator

The roots of the recovery, rights and peer support movements can be traced back to the courageous efforts of pioneers in the consumer/survivor movement. Come hear stories of the efforts that brought us to where we are today and join in the discussion around the challenges and opportunities that face us in the days ahead from this panel of NYAPRS Lifetime Achievement Award winners.

2:00-3:15 pm

• The Courage to Disrupt: Being a Peacock in the Land of Penguins

Cherene Caraco CEO, Chief Global Strategist, Promise Resource Network

In this keynote, we're going on a journey of examining ways in which conformity and standardization has resulted in siloes and segregation and ultimately, how these perpetuate illness. We will explore what it would take to flip the script, blurring the systems siloes to build unifying policy, establishing alternatives to clinical services, forced treatment and incarceration, and using our wisdom as trauma, psychiatric, houselessness, suicide attempt, formerly incarcerated, substance use, harm reduction, domestic violence and HIV+ survivors to create the opportunities for healing that we never had but critically needed.

- Healing and Social Change Through Hip Hop

Luis O. Lopez (DJ LOL), DJ Kareem (Jerald Jenkins), Christopher Rogers (MIC HANDZ), Celia Brown, Chacku Mathai, Amanda Saake, and Liz Breier.

We created the Healing Through Hip Hop team and workshop so we can engage each other in the examination of our collective experiences. We share and relate to our stories of embracing our power through the lens of Hip Hop Kulture. What else can we learn from each other about healing and social change? Together, we seek to value our diversity and intersectionality, engage our collective power, and change the social conditions that outraged us in the first place.
