Subject: Peer Workforce Readiness Basics beginning September 16th!

Greetings!

While the name states "peer" workforce, we welcome folx who are interested in any employment. The information and experiences we all share supports a co-learning and thought-provoking environment for those of us who are thinking about employment, not currently working, haven't worked in a while, and those of us who are employed as well.

We explore a different topic each week and share our experiences through guided series of questions related to the topic.
