Subject: FW: Apply now!: 2023 HALI Peer Internship Program

HALI Peer Internship Program

Apply by December 1st for the February 2023 Cohort!

What we offer:

HALI's peer internship program offers relevant experience in preparation for entry into the peer workforce. Additional training will help interns apply knowledge and further develop skills as a peer. HALI will help to facilitate placements in a variety of diverse field settings and will provide co-supervision and collaborative reflective practice for interns.

Applicants are eligible to participate in the program if they:

Hold full or provisional peer certification by the state of New York

OR

Have completed all required Academy of Peer Services courses and have submitted an application for certification to the board

OR

Have at least 6 months of relevant work or volunteer experience in a related field

OR

Have fully completed a classroom-based peer training program
