

Trauma in the Workplace Series

Workshop #2: Creating a Trauma-Informed Workplace

2.16.23

On behalf of Patrice Peterson, coordinator for the NYC Peer and Community Health Worker Workforce Consortium in the NYC Dept. of Health and Mental Hygiene, Dept of Consumer Affairs and Rita Cronise, coordinator for the Academy of Peer Services, and PeerTAC, thank you for attending today's webinar.

Our presenters were Cathy Cave (National Center on Domestic Violence, Trauma & Mental Health), Helen Skipper (NYC Justice Peer Initiative, and Patrice Peterson (who shared some of her story). Teena Brooks provided information about NYS Trauma-Informed Network and will join us next time with more information about that program.

Below are links to the resources mentioned during the webinar:

- Trauma in the Workplace #2, presentation slides
- Brave Space poem \(started the webinar\)
- White Supremacy Culture in Organizations
- Tools for Transformation: The Social, Emotional, and Relational Climate and Organizational Trauma
- Resilience Wisconsin: Applying the Parallel Values of Trauma-Informed Practice
- Trauma and Resilience at Work. Corporation for a Skilled Workforce

A recording of the webinars and resources is available in the Academy of Peer Services Virtual Learning Community: <https://aps-community.org/webinars-recorded/>

If you found this webinar to be informational and transformational, let others know!

Thanks,

Rita, Patrice, Cathy, Skip, LaVerne, Teena, and Maryam